Overview

This course provides you with an opportunity to undertake work-integrated learning and gain industry experience with a host organisation closely related to your Masters program.

At the end of the internship you will provide a summative report of your experiences and work examples completed during the internship.

The internship requires a total commitment of 100-150 hours of work with a host organisation and may normally be taken in first or second semester. Internship opportunities are advertised via the School of the Arts and Media Internship Newsletter. Alternatively you may approach a relevant organisation to apply for an internship. Prior to seeking an internship, you should attend an internship information session run by the School of the Arts and Media.

Enrolment is by approval of the School, conditional on approval of an internship placement and meeting the eligibility requirements. Minimum WAM is 65
