Teaching Methods for High Incidence Disabilities

EDST5107  |  6 Units of Credit

Overview

The focus of this course is on students with high-incidence disabilities. In this course, students will be presented with cognitive, perceptual, language, academic learning, and social-emotional characteristics of these populations. Issues in assessment, curriculum and instruction, and placement will also be discussed. This course will provide students with instruction on applying the goals, intervention strategies, and procedures related to psychodynamic, behavioural, biophysical, and ecological approaches to individuals with disabilities.
