Cross-cultural Pragmatics

LING5022 | 6 Units of Credit

Overview

This course examines the role of language in social, institutional, and cultural contexts, especially the pragmatic sources of language breakdowns and communicative mis-encounters by identifying and describing major factors in communicative events. You will explore a range of case studies that illustrate different sources of miscommunication and learn various ways of analysing the relationship between language and culture. You will become familiar with a useful set of resources to apply in different professional and academic contexts.
