Course

Media Ethics and Law

MDIA5007  |  6 Units of Credit

Overview

In this course you will develop an understanding of the legal and ethical issues that frame media production and consumption. You will work through a series of case studies that highlight these issues and their implications for professional practice and public policy. Topics examined in this course include media content regulation, freedom of speech, the social and health effects of media consumption, privacy, and journalistic ethics.
