Qualitative Research Methods

PHCM9120  |  6 Units of Credit

Overview

This course is offered in two modes: either face to face (on-campus) and fully online.

Explores a range of qualitative research methods and techniques, including participant observation, in-depth interviews and focus groups and their application to public health and health promotion. The course aims to provide students with introductory skills for developing, conducting and documenting interviews as a method and understanding how people interpret health and illness and the contexts in which they occur. Recommended as a beginning step for students wishing to undertake their projects using qualitative methods.
