The Consolidated Studio

Overview

The Consolidated Studio is designed to develop your understanding of trans-disciplinary modes of visual authorship and their relationship to the expanded field of contemporary creative expression. It supports the development of practice based research and topic lead enquiry. You will be challenged to locate your developing practice within a framework informed by media plurality and conceptual rigour. This course provides an opportunity to consolidate your practical and conceptual skills through the production of a resolved body of work supported by expert guidance and consultation as well as peer feedback. You will be introduced to concepts and strategies which inform contemporary practice and develop processes to engage and contribute to these fields. The course prepares you to undertake and complete the major capstone project in the final semester.
