Overview

This capstone course provides you with the opportunity to research and develop a comprehensive body of work, which combines your studio specialisation studies with the specific framework for professional practice and management you have evolved to express your artistic identity. Your project should respond to an issue, dilemma or problem, from which you develop a concept and solution relevant to the aspirations you have for professional practice or further higher research based study. You will work in an interdisciplinary studio environment and have access to a variety of creative approaches that will support a self sustaining approach to individual or multidisciplinary creative authorship.
