Overview

Studio Gateway 2 introduces you to studio practice in contemporary Art, Media and Design. The course underpins your ongoing development as a studio practitioner by allowing you to conceptualise and situate your practice through a series of seminars, workshops and projects designed to challenge ideas around practice and creativity. The course will enable you to work collaboratively and independently, using self and peer evaluation and reflection, and to demonstrate an understanding of, and an ability to use, conceptual and experimental creativity and idea generation.
