Overview

Subject Area: Education

Examines the ethical, political, epistemological and metaphysical aspects of a number of important issues in education such as: determining aims of education, determining what constitutes human well being, deciding on curriculum content, examining what constitutes knowledge claims in different discipline areas, distinguishing rote learning from understanding, identifying rational in contrast to other kinds of beliefs, appreciating the special role of educators in society and their sometimes conflicting obligations towards children, parents and the state, examining arguments about provision of equal educational opportunity, and social justice considerations in school funding.
Faculty
Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

School
School of Education

Study Level
Undergraduate

Offering Terms
Summer Term

Campus
Kensington

Indicative contact hours
3

Timetable
Visit timetable website for details
Conditions for Enrolment

Prerequisite: 18 units of credit at Level 1
Fees

Commonwealth Supported Students $836
Domestic Students $4620
International Students $4830

DISCLAIMER
Please note that the University reserves the right to vary student fees in line with relevant legislation. This fee information is provided as a guide and more specific information about fees, including fee policy, can be found on the fee website.

For advice about fees for courses with a fee displayed as "Not Applicable", including some Work Experience and UNSW Canberra at ADFA courses, please contact the relevant Faculty.

Where a Commonwealth Supported Students fee is displayed, it does not guarantee such places are available.
Additional Information

This course is offered as General Education.
Pre-2019 Handbook Editions

Access past handbook editions (2018 and prior)

Pre-2019 Handbook Editions