Overview

This plan will not be taking applications/enrolments from Semester 1, 2017. For further information email studybusiness@unsw.edu.au.

The Applied Taxation specialisation is designed for tax professionals who are regularly faced with complex tax, superannuation and regulation issues in their professional roles. All courses are available by distance education and some are also available face-to-face in Sydney.

- Deepen the ability of tax professionals to identify and alert their clients to taxation issues within the complexity and volume of tax law in Australia.
- Enable tax professionals to develop skills in identifying underlying business problems and issues relating to taxation, and to think creatively about solutions.
- Provide exposure to the more complex aspects of the taxation discipline and a critical understanding of the Australian taxation system.
- Emphasise the development of skills in research, analysis and sustained self-directed writing, including skills in collecting and organising material.
